Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-19, 21-30 and 32-51 are pending. All the pending claims are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art of Shah (U. S. Patent 6,029,065) teaches remote feature code programming for mobile stations, wherein the base station of a wireless communications network determines what features a mobile station will support, then downloads information to the mobile station which will notify the mobile station of which network features are available and how they may be accessed in the local network, and with the downloaded information, the mobile station user may select a desired feature using the method to which he or she is accustomed.

In regarding to independent claims 1, 21 and 32, Shah taken either individually or in combination with other prior art of record fails to teach or suggest at a telecommunication switch that is enable to recognize a multi-function trigger, receiving a communication from a telecommunications device that has not been preprogrammed to implement the data fulfillment service, the communication comprising an input sequence including a multi-function trigger.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
